2009 SEASON OF PLAYS

London Frontier Theatre

Regrets to Announce that the play scheduled for

MARCH 27/28/29 & APRIL 4/5

A NEW YEAR IN LOST WIFE CREEK *

Must be Canceled due to Unforeseen Circumstances

JULY 10/11/12 & 18/19

THE BALLAD OF BABE & BEAU

Two aging outlaws return to the roaring cowtown they remember, to find it a dusty remnant of its rowdy past. But Babe & Beau have 20 years of living to make up, & they're not about to be "tamed & tidied." A rollicking, poignant portrait of the Old West, with video & live music.

OCTOBER 23/24/25

THE BALLAD OF BABE & BEAU

THE BALLAD OF BABE & BEAU replaces LFTC's autumn (AND NONE RODE AWAY) show. We apologize for these cancellations, but we must take this crucial time to renew energies and obtain grants and funding to keep our WPA Theatre and to continue operations, in order to give you more, and ever-better, original presentations.

Audience response to THE BALLAD OF BABE & BEAU was enthusiastic; we hope those of you who attended the show in July will return with friends and tell others about the show. For those who didn't see the earlier presentation, BABE & BEAU is a "Romance of the Old West", a story of the love of life, adventure and each other that we all yearn for and a few "outlaws" seek to create. Please continue to support LFTC, while enjoying a nostalgic journey back in time and a lively reminder of life's joys, absurdities, and limitless possibilities.
