2008/2009 SEASON OF PLAYS

JULY 11/12/13 & 19/20

A HOME OF HER OWN (IN THE END)

World Premier of Texas playwright Jane Manning's powerful drama of three Western women facing momentous decisions with the courage & fortitude of their heritage.

OCTOBER 24/25/26 & NOVEMBER 1/2

DARK PATH THROUGH THE WILDERNESS

For Halloween/Dias de los Muertos, let masters of the macabre Edgar Allen Poe & Ambrose Bierce, and New Mexico's own unquiet spirits, lure you down the darkest paths of the soul.

DECEMBER 5/6/7

THE TRAIL OF LONESOME TREE

New Mexico, 1933, Christmas with the Aragons & the Trotters: a lone pine stands sentinel on the open plains; Cass & Manny are lost in a blizzard; and a mysterious stranger, who "rode the rails" to the end of the line, appears in Lost Wife Creek.

MARCH 27/28/29 & APRIL 4/5

A NEW YEAR IN LOST WIFE CREEK

Thirteenth in the popular Lost Wife Creek series (each episode a complete play), set in 1930's/Depression-era New Mexico; reviewed as "Historic, hilarious, nostalgic..." The Aragons & the Trotters face 1937 with full hearts, empty pockets - and hope.

All performances at Magdalena's Historic WPA Theatre

Main at Fourth St.
